

Reilly's a Lock

Since 1932, the name Ontarians trust when it comes to security products is Reilly Lock. Now about to enter their 75th year of operation, they are still the most trusted name for all of Toronto's security needs.

The company is very excited to be able to celebrate this major milestone next year. They are in the works of designing a new logo and new uniforms as a way to commemorate this momentous occasion.

As the most established security professionals in the Greater Toronto Area, Reilly Lock™ is renowned for carrying a complete line of the most advanced security products on the market. Their retail location in Toronto employs friendly and knowledgeable staff that will assist you in best suiting their products to your needs. Recently, Reilly Lock has renovated their showroom and it is very well done and worth checking out. There is not other showroom like it in Toronto. You have to see the hidden door behind the wall, but you will not find it.

The company's wide range of products, full-service philosophy and commitment to excellence has firmly established them as the leader in their industry. That potent combination has landed the company the Consumer's Choice Award for Best Locksmith for now their tenth consecutive year.

Carmine Panaro, president of the Reilly Group of Companies, which encompasses Reilly Lock, Reilly's Locksmiths, Reilly's Security Services, Reilly's Security Systems and Paul's Lock in Barrie operates the organization with over 200 security professionals.

The Reilly Lock division carries safes, high-security locks, panic hardware, security grills, exit hardware, decorative hardware, and their own brand of Reilly's mechanical and electronic security hardware.

Panaro says where the company excels is in the breadth and superiority of its product lines, and its ability to create customized security solutions for each client.

"We get involved in understanding what our clients need," Panaro says. "We're not just selling one box that every customer has to buy. We're selling a variety of products that will best suit their requirements."

The company's cutting-edge product lines are matched by a stellar track record when it comes to customer service, Panaro says.

Reilly's team of industry professionals is committed to providing exceptional service for all your residential, industrial, commercial and corporate needs. The on-site installation team connects everything from locks to surveillance equipment, security guards and services existing client products, as well.

"We offer 24-hour service. Other companies may advertise the same, but they might not show up for a call 'till the following day," Panaro says. "Our service means if a call comes in in the evening, we arrive in the evening."

That promise has earned Reilly Lock a loyal clientele base made up of about 5,000 corporate clients such as Canwest Global TV, the CN Tower, Sanofi Pasteur, Cadbury, Toronto Police, Fairmont Royal York Hotel, Toronto's Union Station, the University of Toronto and the 407 ETR to name a few.

In keeping up with growing demand, the company now has over 200 employees and in addition to meeting local demands, facilitates services for clients across Canada, the U.S., Mexico, Trinidad and Tobago, and the U.K. through its vast network of locksmith and security professionals.

As a full-service, completely integrated security company, Reilly's carries a comprehensive line of alarms. They stock everything from dependable residential alarms to intricate CCTV and access control systems for your business. Reilly's Security Services will provide you with all your security guard needs as well.
